

FOOTHILLS RESTORATION WERKS

UNIQUE Technical Internship Opportunity

Foothills Restoration Werks is seeking student interns who are passionate about learning technology and engineering as it relates to transportation systems.

Interested students please contact your school counselor or Amber Falise, Career Development Coordinator, falisea@wilkes.k12.nc.us for more information and to apply.

“The company’s mission is to mentor young people in the art of automotive fabrication in pursuit of fostering age old skills in the current generation.”

Fitting old body panels to the new higher upper subframe for clearance of the new F20c

Skills Needed

- Critical Thinking & Problem Solving
- Technical
- Tool Identification
- Ability to follow directions
- Understanding of safety procedures